DEAR VALUED TREKKERS,

Namaste from Mountain Travel Nepal!

As Nepal continues to stabilise following the recent period of political unrest, we are pleased to share that life in the tourism sector continues with cautious optimism. Visitors can currently travel and explore without issue, with transportation links only closing for 48hrs during the protests. We encourage our guests to continue with their plans and experience Nepal's extraordinary natural and cultural heritage without concern, whilst still continuing to be in touch with our reservation teams for periodic updates.

As the pioneers of commercial trekking in Asia since 1964, we continue our legacy of providing exceptional and safe journeys through the Himalayas.
